This note came in email for anyone interested.

We're looking for crafters interested in selling their handiwork on consignment on our new web site at www.mistymountainshop.com. If you're interested in selling with us, please email a few jpegs of your work to info@mistymountainshop.com along with a price list and we'll contact you to discuss selling your items. If you have any friends who would like to sell their items, please have them get in touch as well!

Our focus is on Native American, Appalachian crafts, New Age and just about anything unique and unusual. We pay through PayPal when items are sold. We look forward to hearing from you!

Congratulations

At the 2004 Lenexa Artist' Award Reception on September 21st, J. R. "Russ" Blaser was awarded the Best of Show ribbon and cash award for his entry "Symphony of Shapes".

Jerry McMaster won the club challenge with a pierced hollow form "goblet". He demonstrated several useful items the project could hold. This was a wonderful project.

Vickie McClain's design was chosen by the club membership for the new club logo. The logo is printed on the first page of this newsletter. The logo will be used for letterhead, the newsletter and other official club items.

Chapter Collaborative Project

The Club Collaborative project for the 2005 symposium is headed by Bob Davis. The project will be auctioned at the 2005 symposium with half of the proceeds returned to our Club. Contact Bob Davis for details or to volunteer for any turning tasks.
