Annual Christmas Party

Our Annual Christmas Party is Monday, December 10th. This is always an enjoyable meeting. We're looking forward to seeing you all there.

If you choose to participate in the gift exchange, bring a gift that you would like to receive from others. Please no gag gifts. The exchange involves a drawing a number and receiving a wrapped or sacked gift in exchange for the gift you bring for someone else. Examples of gifts have been turned items (ornaments, stoppers, etc.), blocks of wood to be turned including exotics, a tool or a bottle of wine.

We will have wine, cheese, crackers, sausage as well as hot and cold drinks. Please bring a finger food item to share with the group.

Most important – If you would like, please bring a spouse, friend or date to help us enjoy the festivities.

Jay Nichols

The Kansas City Woodturners members would like to thank the outgoing club officers for a very successful 2007. Other thanks go to the KCWT support staff and other club members that also helped make 2007 another great year for our club.

January Turning Challenge

This turning challenge is to make a turning from an unusual material. The material and its unusualness will be left up to the turner.

Have fun with this one!!

Last November Meeting Demonstration

Christmas Ornaments and More

Judy Chesnut demonstrated how to make a globe and icicle tree ornament. Judy turned the icicles and used a sea urchin shell as the globe.

Mary Davis demonstrated her painting expertise.

Anthony Harris demonstrated how to turn a wooden globe for a tree ornament. He also demonstrated how to make a cup chuck.
